

Reduce, Reuse, Recycle Business Leader of the Week:

Mountains of Groceries

Did You Know?

- This grocery delivery service uses only reusable canvas shopping bags and boxes to transport groceries.
- Mountains of Groceries owner Ashley Watson requests that her clients allow her to buy organic foods and earth-friendly household products on their behalf.
- Mountains of Groceries offers a cabinet clearing service, through which leftover food and household products are removed from vacation rentals and donated to people in need.
